

On Jul 20, 2015 4:03 PM, "Janet Phelan" <writejanet@live.com> wrote:

Dear Ms. Parks,

I am writing to you regarding the prosecution of whistleblower Cary-Andrew Crittenden in Santa Clara Superior Court. (Docket C1493022)

Due to the continued interest in Mr. Crittenden evidenced by those in the legal system in Santa Clara County, and given my understandings of what many believe is a wrongful prosecution, I went ahead and pulled up the financial transaction documents for both Supervising DA James Leonard and also Judge David Cena. There is concern now that either or both may be laundering funds (bribes and pay offs) through their home loans.

As you are the defense attorney representing Mr. Crittenden, I am forwarding the documents culled from the Grantor Grantee index to you and am formally asking you to procure the loan and reconveyance records, in pursuit of an adequate defense for Mr. Crittenden in this unique high profile case.

The issue of home loans as a mechanism for paying off public officials is well known.

If you wouldn't mind also sending these documents on to me when you have procured them it would be most appreciated.

Thanking you in advance,

Janet Phelan

541-708-3534

New Eastern Outlook (journal-neo.org)

Janet has files to share with you on OneDrive. To view them, click the links below.

 cena, david.docx

 cena, jule.docx

 leonard, james.docx

 leonard, ella.docx